Best Of Northwest Indiana Businesses 2008

Our readers pick their favorites in products, businesses, services and lifestyle.

When Northwest Indiana residents find a good thing, they let people know. And that's what they've been doing since last October, logging into the Northwest Indiana Business Quarterly website and voting for the "Best Of Northwest Indiana Business."

If it's a product or service, Northwest Indiana customers and readers of NWIBQ want to let everyone know who has the best service, where to go to get a great meal or where the best place is to hold a meeting or even work.

In dozens of categories, readers have made their choices. For those who took the time to scroll through the categories and vote, we thank you. By voting, you have given deserved recognition to some special Northwest Indiana businesses, and you have helped to make Northwest Indiana Business Quarterly your own.
